National Security Agency
Fort George G. Meade, Maryland

Dear Len:

I appreciate your congratulations on my move to the position of Deputy Director for Support.

I continue to have a strong interest in security activities and expect to see you from time to time on mutual problems. I think the sort of assistance and cooperation that has developed between your staff and the Agency's Office of Security is a tremendous asset in handling the various security problems we both have to face.

I want to thank you for your special efforts in promoting this cooperation and the excellent assistance you have given the Agency on many occasions. In the same line, if we can be of assistance to you please don't hesitate to call upon us.

Again, many thanks.

Sincerely,

15/ T306

Dear Bob:

Even though this is late, I would still like to express my sincerest congratulations on the occasion of your recent promotion to Deputy Director of Support, which, as we all know, is richly deserved.

Our association over a number of years has certainly been most pleasant and, I, as well as many others, have a high regard for your competence, integrity and dedication as a government executive. I appreciate your advice in the past and hope I can continue to seek your assistance in future matters of mutual interest.

STAT We, in the [redacted] are indeed grateful for your generous cooperation and we trust that you will call on us whenever we can be of help.

Kindest personal regards,
